FOUR UNIQUE SITES ALL UNDER ONE ROOF

The Old Bengal Warehouse is an exceptional building with a fascinating history, which will continue to dazzle the city as it has done for the last 330 years.

This historical 18th century warehouse comprises of New Street Wine, Fish Market, New Street Grill and Old Bengal Bar, all available for corporate or personal hire for lunches, dinners, wine tastings and more.

In 1768 The East India Company bought land on New Street and the first warehouse was built to store raw silk, piece goods and textiles from Bengal, hence the warehouse was named Old Bengal Warehouse.

Transformed into four beautiful venues, two restaurants a wine bar and a cocktail lounge and courtyard. Boasting mouth – watering steaks and the finest fresh fish, to stunning Bordeaux and Burgundy wines, not to mention the extensive choice of cocktails, we will make sure you have an event to remember.
